Newsletter – June 2017

Congratulations goes to James and Sarah Cooper from Dacre with their Limousin bull Tomschoice Matador by Carwin Icaros for winning the Northern Limousin Extravaganza 2017! Which was kindly judged by Ian Wildgoose from Scarcliffe in Derbyshire.

The reserve champion went to the commercial, a Limousin sired heifer called Rio from Neil Slack of Newby, and by the French bull Rossignol. Full class results included and report can be seen on the North-East section of the Limousin website or Craven Cattle Marts.
